The Mananaler Store. Home Adornment

An "opening" in the Upholstery Store to-day, and consequently the opening of an Autumn School in the art of home-beautifying at little cost.

These are the days of specialists, and among those of recent development is the upholstery specialist, or (as he prefers to be called) the Designer of Interiors. He is the logical result of artistic progress. The arrangement of curtains, carpets, furnishings, wall paper, hangings and bric-a-brac, formerly a matter of indifference, later a matter of circumstance, and even recently scarcely more than haphazard, has risen to the dignity of an Art. With the art comes the artist. In the demands of art and artist, ever greater and more exacting, lies the reason of such a showing as this.

It is prepared with an especial reference to easy choosing. Tapestries, Damasks, Portieres and heavy Curtains, Lace Curtains, Oriental Goods, Table Covers and Painted Tapestries have each a section to themselves. The immense extent of the exhibit forbids any attempt at detail. The great and growing demand for new goods and new effects must be met with ever-increasing varieties and quantities. The whole energy of our searching and selecting machinery has been given to the ample meeting of this demand.

A feature not to be overlooked is that all-important feature-Little Cost. It is hand in hand with novelty, beauty, originality and excellence.

The Demand for We Fill It

Novelty, and How and especialdress goods, ly to the original, dashing and ever-changing kinds that come from Paris, and from a trade standpoint monopolize the word Several reasons unite to make the showing we have here the only complete one in New York, and one of in America. One reason was that French makers were seriously alarmed customers at the outbreak of the rewith caution, and the goods are scarcer than usual.

Then the American buyers-except ours-were themselves uncertain. It was believed that the plainer weaves and colors would be dominant. They bought the novelties sparingly, or not at all.

We had the field nearly to ourselves, and profited by it. Here are the Parisian novelties in all their elegance and beauty, and a tremendous demand for them, besides: At $4.50 yd.-Silk-and-wool black Velour, with bayadere colored satin stripes, edged

HE FLINT'S FINE FURNITURE

INLAYING FOR DINING ROOMS.

Originated by the cultured and color-loving Italians in the days of Brunelleschi and Paul Veronese, inlaying is to the severar furniture decorations of the North what the velvet-robed Senator of St. Mark's was to the mail-clad Teuton.

To produce the original air of rich refinement, inlaying must be quiet and chaste—never overdone.

In many of our beautiful pieces, a bordering line or two is the only decoration. In others, Grecian urns and graceful festoons lighten the large, flat surfaces.

The simplest inlayings add greatly to the beauty, and only the merest trifle in the cost of manufacturing, as you
